

2023 Entry Handbook

The overall goal of the Central Coast Vinegar Competition (CCVC) is to provide a venue for vinegars to be professionally judged, and to educate consumers regarding the quantity and styles of vinegar produced in the USA.

Lead Organization - California Mid-State Fair
Chief Judge Tim McDonald, Napa, CA

GENERAL RULES

1. All entries must be registered through the official online registration: <https://cmsfw.fairwire.com/> and must reach the Fair office on or before the entry closing.
2. After an entry is submitted, the entry fee will not be refunded.
3. The judge's decision is final and determines all awards.
4. The same vinegar (although marketed under different labels) may not be entered in more than one category. However, a business may submit multiple entries in the same category.
5. An official entry consists of (2) 210 ml bottles. Competition reserves the right to request additional bottles of award-winning vinegars for display purposes.
6. Any vinegar delivered by mail, freight, or express must be prepaid. No entry will be accepted for which carrier charges have not been prepaid. All entries become the property of the competition.
7. The CCVC, management and staff are not responsible for errors in entries. No business shall be entitled to an award for which has been disallowed on the basis of the producer's error.
8. Businesses/Entries found in violation of rules or ethical practices will forfeit awards and other privileges deemed appropriate by the Central Coast Vinegar Competition Management and the Chief Judge.
9. Vinegars entered must be available for commercial sale.
10. Please identify in large legible letters, the name of the producer on the outside of each case. The outside of each case is also to be labeled CCVC. No vinegars will be accepted for which carrier charges have not been prepaid. Attach Packing List to outside of case highlighting specific entries inside.
